All Are Welcome: At St. Paul we welcome all to worship and share in God's love, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, ability, age, economic status, background, life situation, or wherever you are in your faith journey. All who Believe and are Baptized (from any church) are invited to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion here.

A Word from Pastor Tony

We are thrilled to welcome Chaplain Erzkus of the Lutheran Campus Ministry at WVU as our supply pastor for the day. Ministering to college students is a vital mission, guiding them faithfully through the challenges and opportunities of this transformative phase. Today, we embrace our shared commitment to nurturing faith, wisdom, and community among the next generation and at all stages of life. As we welcome Chaplain Erzkus, let's reaffirm our support for the important work of the Lutheran Campus Ministry and its impact on the spiritual journeys of students at West Virginia University.

Announcements

- ◆ Communion today will be at the rail. Please line-up in the center aisle and proceed forward to the rail, filling in from outside toward center. Return to your pew down side aisle on your side of the Church.
- ◆ Grape juice & gluten free wafers are available, just ask for them at the rail.
- ◆ If you are unable to come forward but would like to receive, please let the usher know and the bread and wine will be brought to you.
- ◆ The Monongalia Symphony Orchestra, which has been practicing in our building, will hold their spring concert on April 14, 6 PM at the National Guard Readiness Center. The Youth Orchestra will perform at 4 PM the same day. Pieces by Dvorak and Coleridge-Taylor are on the program.
- ◆ In lieu of Sunday School today, children are invited to search for Easter eggs in the narthex and downstairs.
- ◆ For more information and updates, visit us at StPaulMorgantown.org or our Facebook group, The Epistle Online.

Circle of Friends

Through the Circle of Friends program, we will serve a free community meal on April 28th, 4pm at the Lutheran Campus Chapel. Your help is needed, especially to serve and cleanup.

Please contact Sheila Zinn for more information and to offer your assistance. 410-599-3818. Please leave a message or text me at that number.

Please also consider making a donation to Circle of Friends. Make out the check to St. Paul; write Circle of Friends in the memo line.
