All Are Welcome: At St. Paul we welcome all to worship and share in God's love, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, ability, age, economic status, background, life situation, or wherever you are in your faith journey.

All who Believe and are Baptized (from any church) are invited to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion here.

A Word from Pastor Tony

We extend a warm welcome to one of our own, Bishop Matthew Riegel, as our supply pastor for the day. While, as a member of St. Paul, we get to see him a lot; his presence embodies the bond we share with our synod, a relationship nurtured by faith, solidarity, and shared mission. Today, let us celebrate the unity and strength that stems from our interconnectedness within the wider Lutheran community. As we gather today, may we deepen our understanding of our collective purpose with the whole church and commit ourselves to the faith and service of God's love in our congregation and beyond.

Announcements

- ◆ Communion today will be at the rail. Please line-up in the center aisle and proceed forward to the rail, filling in from outside toward center. Return to your pew down side aisle on your side of the Church.
- ◆ Grape juice & gluten free wafers are available, just ask for them at the rail.
- ◆ If you are unable to come forward but would like to receive, please let the usher know and the bread and wine will be brought to you.
- ◆ For more information and updates, visit us at StPaulMorgantown.org or our Facebook group, The Epistle Online.
